Story Telling Day 14th February 2025 We're inviting all the children to Read Your Way, by asking the children to come to school dressed in a outfit of their choice. This could a comfy pair of pyjamas, a trusty old tracksuit or as their favourite book character. Ultimately, we want the children to let go of reading pressures and expectations and find fun in listening to stories and reading. We would really appreciate a donation to the school, to support with the development of a reading "nook" in our outdoor area. There is a payment item on ParentMail or you can bring cash on the day for the donations.
